

PRA MISSION

To promote the development of best practices in the delivery of rehabilitation services to people with disabilities.

To educate our community about disability.

To advocate for public policy to support full inclusion of people with disabilities in society.

To encourage and foster the recruitment, professional growth, and retention of qualified competent personnel in the field of rehabilitation.

ABOUT PRA

The Pennsylvania Rehabilitation Association (PRA) is a private, voluntary association comprised of members from a variety of disciplines, persons with disabilities, their families, students, and interested citizens.

Our members believe that through knowledge comes power. We are pleased to offer this Professional Development Institute.

For more about PRA's Speakers Bureau, newsletter, and other activities go to www.nationalrehab.org/pennsylvania. If you are interested in membership information call Carl L. Marshall at 1-800-442-6351 or email carmarshal@state.pa.us.
